

If you fall on the side that is pro-George, and pro-war, you get your ass over to Iraq and take the place of somebody who wants to come home.

We must stay the course

How can you stay a course that is so obviously not working

And if you fall on the side that is against this war and against George Bush stand up and speak out. But whatever side you fall on, quit being on the fence.